

On Sunday night, May 8 from 7 pm to 6 am , Hunter Contracting will be building access ramps in preparation to shift traffic to the new Silverbell Road alignment.

The traveling public can expect the following impacts:

- The intersection of Silver Arrow Drive and Silverbell Road will be closed. The traveling public can enter and exit the neighborhood via Silver Tree Drive.
- The intersection of Frostwood Lane and Silverbell Road will be closed. The traveling public can enter and exit the neighborhood via Burlwood Way.

There will be restrictions to southbound travel on Silverbell Road from Burlwood Way and Frostwood Lane in the work area as follows:

- If motorists are traveling northbound via Burlwood Way and Frostwood Lane to access Silverbell Road, make a right turn and proceed.
- If motorists are traveling southbound via Burlwood Way and Frostwood Lane to access Silverbell Road, make a right turn onto Silverbell Road. Motorists will be detoured to Painted Sunset Circle and directed to perform a u-turn to continue on southbound Silverbell Road.

Starting Monday, May 9, traffic will be shifted to the new Silverbell Road alignment. Pedestrians will be directed to utilize the new sidewalk improvements on the west side of the roadway. Pedestrian crosswalks will be at the following streets (Click to see map):

- Silverbell Tree Drive
- Painted Sunset Circle
- Burlwood Way

During peak hours, workers will be on the job site directing pedestrians. For the safety of the traveling public, please remember that the speed limit in the construction area is 25 mph. The Tucson Police Department will be enforcing this speed limit to ensure safety.
